

Best Practice 2018-19

Best Practice-I:

Title: State level debating competition competition.

Objectives:

1. To motivate students for a hearty discussion debate over the topic of national importance.
2. To provide exposure to the oratory skills.
3. To empower students linguistic and acoustic skills.
4. To inculcate a sense of competing spirit amongst students.
5. To accolade the most promising debaters.
6. To create a deep sense of understanding and conscience amongst students.

The context:

The competition is being organized by the institute every year. It is named after the founder of the Dharmabad shikshan sanstha, Late Padmashri Shamraoji Kadam. The students from different college and universities from across the state participates in the competition. The scheme of the competition motivates students to increase their participation in the competition. The competitive spirit, a deep sense of understanding, prose and cons of the topic are the skills being inculcated amongst students.

The Practice:

The competition is being organized every year. The sum of prizes distributed in the competition is incurred from the college fund. In this year, fourteen teams (two students in each team) participated in the competition. Prizes are distributed to those teams and individual students who stood first, second and third respectively.

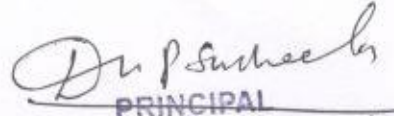

Evidence of success:

The practice had been initiated with a purpose to encourage students to enhance their leadership qualities. Linguistic, acoustic skill and the deep understanding of the burning issues. This sort of encouragement could play a pivotal role in providing appropriate atmosphere for the same.

Resource Required:

The most important resources required is the human resource, teachers, students, participants, staff. Besides, it requires financial and other related resources.

Best practice 2018-19

PRINCIPAL
Lal Bahadur Shastri Mahavidyalaya
Dharmabad. Dist. Nanded

Best Practice -II

Title: Felicitation of meritorious students with cash prizes.

Objectives:

1. To appreciate the educational achievement of the students.
2. To motivate students to study hard.
3. To provide financial support to the student having curricular excellence.
4. To motivate the students to do even better in their future course of their study.
5. To improve the performance of students.
6. To inculcate a sense of competitive spirit among the students for the curricular performance.

The Context:

The prominent stakeholder of the institute belongs to the lower socio-economical community. The socioeconomical barriers of the student may compel him/her for a grateful educational progress and continuation. Considering the fact, the respected management members and donors unanimously agreed to initiate a programme to boost the students for their educational progress. Also, the scheme motivates the students to increase their performance in education and it also helps them to know the competition in the educational field.

The practice:

The cash prize distribution ceremony is organized every year. These prizes are sponsored by generous personalities from Dharmabad. Besides, some of the prizes sponsored by our retired faculties by the institute itself. Notable amongst all the six prizes are the 'Late G. Shankarayyaji', 'Late Varni Gangannaji' and 'Prof. M. K. Gundawar'. All of these prizes are distributed to the students who obtained highest marks in various subject and faculties. Some of the donors deposit the fund in the form of fixed deposit; the interest on which is used in the form of prizes.

Evidence of success:

The practice had been initiated with the purpose to encourage our student to enhance their academic performance. It was also considered that our students are essentially with socioeconomical and educational background. Such type of encouragement would play a significant role in providing moral support. Due to availing prizes, the students are encourage further seen to occupy the prominent position in the society.

Resources required:

The most important resource required is the human resource, teachers, staff and well wishers etc. The prize distribution committee.

PRINCIPAL

Lal Bahadur Shastri Mahavidyalaya
Dharmabad. Dist. Nanded